Welcome to SEGAMAT

Legend has it the name Segamat comes from the expression "segar amat" meaning "very fresh". The words were spoken by Bendahara Tepok to his troops as he rests and drank from a river during their retreat after the fall of Malacca around 1511. Segamat is known for their durians, as the district hilly trail and well-drained rich clay soil allows fruit to grow well. Segamat is a town and district located in the north of state of Johore in Malaysia, bordering two other states of Malaysia. It is located roughly 172 km from Johor Bahru, the capital city of Johore State.
