

FUN MAP OF BATU PAHAT

LEGENDS :

Tourism Johor

tourism.johor

@tourism_johor

TOURISM JOHOR

www.tourismjohor.my

Level 3-24,
Johor Tourist Information Centre (JOTIC)
No 2, Jalan Ayer Molek, 80000, Johor Bahru, Johor.

TEL :
607-223 4935 | 607-224 9960 | 607-224 1435

FAX :
607-223 7554

FUN MAP OF

BATU PAHAT

Yok Batu Pahat

VISIT JOHOR
2026

OUTDOOR ESCAPES

TAMAN REKREASI TASIK Y

Nestled in the heart of Batu Pahat, Taman Rekreasi Tasik Y is a family-friendly park built around a Y-shaped lake. Popular among joggers, families and casual visitors, the park features a scenic walking track, playgrounds, outdoor gym equipment and quirky dinosaur statues that add a playful charm.

BATU PAHAT PUMP TRACK

Jalan Sejati, Kampung Bahagia, 83000 Batu Pahat, Johor

Malaysia's first asphalt BMX and MTB pump track spans approximately 245m and opened in early 2019. Designed for riders of all skill levels, it features flowing berms and jumps perfect for training or weekend meet-ups. Best enjoyed with a bike or skateboard. It's a vibrant hub for community cycling enthusiasts

PANTAI SUNGAI LURUS

Pantai Sungai Lurus, 83200 Senggarang, Johor

This peaceful river mouth beach near Senggarang offers clear waters and lush greenery. Open 24/7 and free to visit, it's popular for fishing, kayaking, picnicking and spending quality time in nature. Facilities include resting areas with benches and tables amidst a serene, village-kampung atmosphere.

PANTAI PUNGGUR

Jalan Kampung Punggur Laut Timur, 83100 Senggarang, Johor

Located about 30 KM south of Batu Pahat, this quiet beach is ideal for relaxation, family outings, fishing and enjoying sunsets. Adjacent to fresh seafood stalls and traditional cultural sites, it offers gentle waves, soft sands and a peaceful coastal vibe, perfect for unwinding or romantic walks.

TAMAN EKO RIMBA SOGA PERDANA

Taman Bukit Perdana, 83000 Batu Pahat, Johor

Situated within Soga Forest Reserve, this 49-hectare recreational forest includes about 10 hectares of developed trails and basic visitor amenities. It opens daily from 8.00 a.m to 6.00 p.m, great for hiking, jogging and wildlife or bird watching amid native Johor flora. Located just over 3 KM from Batu Pahat town centre.

GUNUNG BANANG

RC RUNWAY SAWAH SAGIL

AGRO TERNAK PELADANG SRI MEDAN

KEM BRAVO

BATU PAHAT

YOK BATU PAHAT

PLACE OF INTEREST

Tucked along the west coast of Johor, Batu Pahat is a hidden gem where nature, culture, and local charm come together. Known for its peaceful beaches, rich history, and warm hospitality, this vibrant town offers a perfect mix of relaxation and exploration. Whether you're drawn to scenic coastal views, delicious street food, or cultural landmarks, Batu Pahat has something for everyone.

DATARAN PENGKARAM

The Heartbeat of Batu Pahat

Feel the pulse of Batu Pahat at this iconic town square. Take a walk around its spacious grounds, enjoy local events, and don't forget a selfie with the famous Batu Pahat sculpture featuring a giant chisel and rock a tribute to the town's legendary origin.

GALERI DATO' ONN

Legacy of a Leader. Spirit of a Nation

Step into the life and legacy of a national icon at Galeri Dato Onn. This gallery honors Dato' Onn Jaafar, a key figure in Malaysia's journey to independence. Through personal artifacts, photos and historical exhibits, visitors can explore his contributions and the impact he had on shaping the nation.

OLD STREET COMMERCIAL CENTRE

Where Heritage Meets Trend

Old Street Commercial Centre blends heritage charm with modern flair. Set against rows of restored shophouses, it's a lively spot filled with cafes, boutiques and street art. Perfect for a leisurely stroll, this area offers a unique experience where tradition meets today's lifestyle.

LANAMAN SHAH BANDAR

Nature, Leisure, and Local Vibes

Located by the river, Laman Shah Bandar is a peaceful green space for family outings and casual walks. With landscaped gardens and scenic views, it's a favorite spot among locals to unwind and enjoy nature right in the heart of Batu Pahat.

ARENA WARNA

The Pulse of Creative Expression

Arena Warna in Ayer Hitam, is a vibrant marketplace renowned for its diverse offerings and cultural charm. Visitors can explore a wide array of stalls featuring local handicrafts, ceramic goods, traditional snacks like dodol and crackers, fresh fruits, flowers and various small-scale industry (IKS) products, all under one roof. Arena Warna not only serves as a shopping destination but also as a community hub that celebrates local creativity and entrepreneurship.

ACCOMODATION TOP FAMILY-FRIENDLY STAYS

VILLA KEMBOJA HOMESTAY

Villa Kemboja Homestay located in Kampung Peserai Pantai, offering an authentic village atmosphere with comfortable facilities. The homestay is ideal for family holidays, group stays, or small events, with a clean swimming pool, a spacious barbecue area, and plenty of parking space available for guests. Surrounded by green countryside and fresh air, making it a relaxing escape just minutes away from the town of Batu Pahat.

BAROKAH SRI VILLAGE

Barokah Sri Village in Parit Raja, Batu Pahat, is a family-friendly homestay and event venue offering a range of accommodations, from cozy chalets to spacious bungalows. It features two swimming pools, BBQ facilities, a surau, event hall, and on-site dining at Leypark Bistro and Qareem Steamboat with over 100 menu options. Ideal for family vacations, reunions, or private events, the village provides a peaceful setting with modern comforts just a short drive from town.

TERATAK SAWAH SAGIL

Teratak Sawah Sagil, located in Kampung Parit Sagil near Ayer Hitam, Johor, is a peaceful countryside retreat surrounded by lush paddy fields. Known for its serene kampung atmosphere and scenic views, it's a popular spot for relaxation, enjoying local treats like pisang goreng and teh tarik, and even pre-wedding photo shoots. Just a short drive from Batu Pahat, it offers a refreshing escape into nature and traditional village life.

LOVER BRIDGE RESORT

Situated beside Segenting's iconic Lover Bridge in Batu Pahat, Lover Bridge Resort offers a romantic seaside retreat. Its 11 glass-fronted rooms let guests wake up to ocean views, and the resort's wooden walkway is perfect for sunset strolls. Guests rave about its warm hospitality, sea-view dining, bicycle rides through the fishing village and amenities like Wi-Fi, flat-screen TVs and boat rides for fishing or fireworks, ideal for couples and families

RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES & INSTA-SPOT

FORTUNE DRAGON

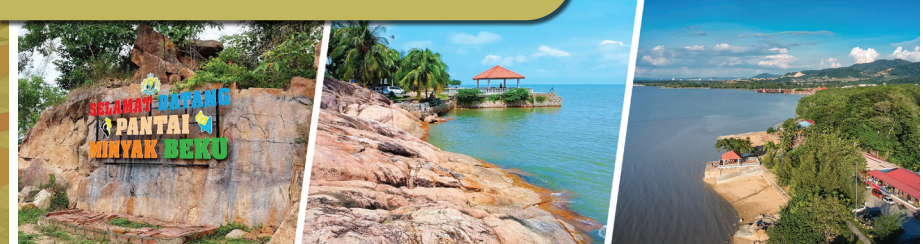

Located in Yong Peng, Johor, the Fortune Dragon is a 115-meter-long dragon tunnel, reputed to be the world's longest of its kind. Visitors can enter through the dragon's mouth and walk through its air-conditioned interior, which features 42 Chinese paintings depicting Buddhist teachings and the afterlife. According to ancient Taoist folklore, those who complete the journey from the dragon's mouth to its tail will enjoy good fortune and ward off evil

BATU PAHAT STREET ART

Batu Pahat's street art scene is a vibrant showcase of local culture and creativity. Initiated by a group of young artists, murals adorn various streets, depicting everyday Malaysian life and environmental themes. Notable locations include Jalan Ibrahim, Kampung Sateh and Jalan Rotan Utama, where visitors can enjoy these hidden gems and gain insights into the community's values.

PANTAI MINYAK BEKU

Located approximately 10 km south of Batu Pahat town, Pantai Minyak Beku is a serene coastal destination steeped in history. Legend has it that Siamese soldiers, in search of fresh water, chiseled rocks here but discovered oil instead, giving the beach its unique name, which translates to "Frozen Oil Beach." Visitors can explore the historic Batu Pahat Well, enjoy fishing, or relax with a picnic while taking in views of the Strait of Malacca.

YOK BP CRUISE

Yok BP Cruise in Batu Pahat offers a relaxing river tour along the scenic Batu Pahat River, starting from Jati Yok BP Cruise at Jalan Shahbandar. Launched by the local council, the cruise takes visitors past historical landmarks, mangrove forests and iconic spots like the old Japanese Club and Si Hai Long Wang Temple. Special sunset packages are also available for those seeking a more private and memorable experience.

FOODIE TRAIL

Known for its rich culinary scene, Batu Pahat offers everything from iconic street food and fresh seafood to heritage dishes passed down through generations. This foodie trail highlights the must-try eats that define Batu Pahat's vibrant food culture.

NASI BERIANI MOHD SHAH

One of Batu Pahat's most iconic briyani spots, Nasi Beriani Mohd Shah has been delighting locals with its fragrant basmati rice, tender meat choices like lamb and chicken and rich, flavorful gravies.

KARI KAMBING 40 HARI

Known for its thick, aromatic mutton curry, Kari Kambing 40 Hari serves hearty plates of rice with fall off the bone lamb, cooked in a deeply spiced gravy. The name itself draws curiosity and the taste lives up to the hype, making it a must-visit for curry lovers.

BP BERIANI POWER

This well-known spot lives up to its name by serving powerful flavours in every plate of Johor style briyani. With fluffy rice, spiced meats and signature curry blends, BP Bariani Power is a top choice for those craving authentic local taste in a casual setting.

NASI PAKISTAN NO. 1 BATU PAHAT

Offering a unique twist on rice dishes, Nasi Pakistan No. 1 is famous for its aromatic Pakistani style nasi briyani. With flavorful rice and spiced meats, this stall attracts daily crowds looking for something a little different from the usual Johorean fare.

MEE RACUN TAMAN SRI JAYA

Mee Racun is a spicy noodle dish native to Batu Pahat and the Taman Sri Jaya stall is among the most popular places to try it. Served with beef bone marrow in a thick, spicy tomato based sauce, it's a fiery, flavorful experience not to be missed.

ASAM PEDAS KAYU API

Asam Pedas Kayu Api is famous for its rich, spicy asam pedas cooked the traditional way over a wood fire. This eatery draws food lovers with its authentic flavours, especially the tender fish and aromatic broth.