NATURAL WONDERS

TAMAN EKO RIMBA GUNUNG BELUMUT

Located about 30 minutes from Kluang town, Taman Eko Rimba Gunung Belumut is a popular eco-park that offers an immersive experience in Johor's tropical rainforest. The park features clear streams, shady forest trails, and a challenging hike to the summit of Gunung Belumut, which stands at 1,010 metres above sea level. It's an ideal destination for hikers, campers, and nature lovers looking to explore untouched greenery and enjoy a peaceful natural setting.

GUNUNG LAMBAK

Gunung Lambak is a well-loved recreational hill just outside Kluang, suitable for both beginners and experienced hikers. The trails are clearly marked and shaded, with wooden steps, handrails, and resting points along the way. At the summit, visitors are rewarded with sweeping views of Kluang and its surrounding landscapes. The base of the hill also features a park and playground, making it a great weekend spot for families and fitness enthusiasts.

SUNGAI YONG WATERFALL

Hidden near the outskirts of Kahang, Sungai Yong Waterfall is a serene natural retreat surrounded by rainforest. The waterfall flows into shallow, clear pools that are perfect for a refreshing dip. With its cool water, tranquil sounds of nature, and shady picnic spots, this location is ideal for a quiet getaway or a peaceful day out with family and friends. It's one of Kluang's lesser-known gems that offers a true back-to-nature experience.

SAWAH KAHANG

Sawah Kahang is a scenic countryside area known for its vast paddy fields that stretch toward the horizon. During planting and harvesting seasons, the fields come alive with stunning colours and traditional farming activity. Set against a backdrop of hills and open skies, it's a beautiful location for photography, cycling, and leisurely drives. This rural gem offers a glimpse into Johor's agricultural lifestyle and is perfect for those seeking a quiet, picturesque escape.
